

ER 60-5220/a

6 JUL 1960

STAT

Mrs. Violet Fikler

Dear Mrs. Fikler:

On behalf of Mr. Dulles, I would like to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of 18 June.

We have read your comments with interest and appreciate your patriotic interest in writing to us.

Sincerely,

Signed

STAT

STAT

Assistant to the Director

STAT O/DCI/[]:bak(6 July 60)

Distribution:

Orig. - Addressee

✓ 1 - DCI

1 - AAB

1 - ER w/basic

at
ER

(EXECUTIVE DECISION FILE

TODAY

Heed

Dangers of Apathy

Hear

JOHN NOBLE,
Who Lived
10 Years In Prison Camps
In Europe and Siberia

PIKLER
BOSTON

A Public Affairs
Presentation of WNAC RADIO
680

A Public Affairs
Presentation of
WNAC RADIO
680

Speaker:
CLARENCE E. SHRINER
Vice President of Patriotic Education, Inc.

Dangers of Apathy

TODAY Be Alert to the
A.M.
6:15 P.M.

Boston, June 18 1960.

62-5120

Mrs. Allen Welsh Dulles,

Dear Sir -

Do you know what the greatest communist menace is, in this country, since 1933. It just grows and grows, and as yet, no-one has had the courage to expose it. Not even Mr.
J. Edgar Hoover in his book called

Transfers of Deceit: If unheeded,
 please let me know.
 Have you read "The High Finance of American Foreign Policy" by Edgar Snow. Moscow - with front quote by your famous late brother. I am just reading it, and know he is writing the book.

Enclosed 2 clippings - one "Danger of Apathy" a local Radio Broadcast about about how the communists are in every way working against us and our Government. Should be broadcast in every city in the U.S. We will take up when it shall be too late.

Mrs. Violet Piller

Prophet of Popular Sovereignty

as Jefferson, whose bust is framed by the Jefferson-designed colonnade of the University of Virginia, wrote the Declaration of Independence and pro- the nation with a democratic creed. Trusting the fitness of common men ern themselves, he founded a new political party (first called Repub- and later Democrats), which carried him into the Presidency in 1800.

National Pride with 'Old Ironsides'

With the War of 1812 America graduated into self-conscious nationhood, til then it had been little more than a shaky confederation of mutually ous states. But the victories at New Orleans and Lake Erie and the explo the frigate Old Ironsides (right)—now preserved as a national monume Boston—stirred national pride and created a growing sense of national u

Foundation Stone of the Nation

A common goal of America at the time of the Revolution was clear: independence. Its hopes centered in one man. George Washington, whose bust was photographed beside a Revolutionary cannon at Valley Forge, led Father of His Country as early as 1779, while the fighting was still on. His integrity and austere dignity made him a foundation stone for a new-born nation in search of an identity. Eloquence was not Washington's forte, nor was political philosophizing. But after the 1787 constitutional convention over which he presided, Washington forcefully jammed up his and the nation's mission: "to preserve the Union, to establish good order and government, and to render the nation happy at home and respected abroad."

Approved For Release 2003/07/01 : CIA-RDP80B01676R003700020057-0

MAIL TO YOUR POSTMAN

Mr. Allen Welsh Dulles,
Chief of C.I.A.
2723 Q^e (KUE) Street,

Washington, D.C.

Approved For Release 2003/07/01 : CIA-RDP80B01676R003700020057-0

Approved For Release 2003/07/01 : CIA-RDP80B01676R003700020057-0

from
Mrs. V. Pickler

Approved For Release 2003/07/01 : CIA-RDP80B01676R003700020057-0

STAT